Dear NLCS family,

This past Monday, Joy Hatmaker announced to the staff that she will be retiring as a teacher at our school, and returning to be with her family in Indiana. It is no small thing to say that Joy has been a pillar of our school community as she has taught at NLCS for thirteen years. She has deeply loved this school and the families who are part of it. She has been a mentor and encourager to so many staff members and has shown the kind of example that exemplifies NLCS: love, integrity, hard work, and sacrifice. I personally am deeply indebted to her kindness and example over these past three years. It is with great joy and parting sadness that we send her back to Indiana. Thank you Joy, for all you have done for New Life Christian School. We will miss you greatly and may our God bless you and your husband as he leads you to your next journey.

Sincerely,
Headmaster Dowd
