God is my provider

How many are your works, O LORD! In wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

These all look to you to give them their food at the proper time. When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are satisfied.

Psalm 104:24, 27-28

Moms in Prayer International 2024

NLCS Families,

Thank you for your continued support in raising funds for our Feed the Need campaign! We are currently at 69% of our goal...over $41,400!

We have a "Conference Week Challenge" currently underway...secure $100 in donations by Friday November 7th at midnight to unlock a special surprise on Monday, November 10th.

Keep up the good work! With everyone working together we can achieve our goal.

Greetings, New Life parents! I'm grateful to be here among you and getting to know your students. I look forward to seeing all the ways that God is at work here.

I'd love the chance to get to know you as well, and I'm wondering if some of you might be interested in a NLCS parents' book club. I'm envisioning monthly meetings, but I'd be very happy to set up something weekly if enough people are really hungry for this kind of thing. Maybe one of each?

What would we read? The sky's the limit, but here are a few of my own initial ideas:

This one's a wonderful exploration of home and family life:

<https://www.amazon.com/Habits-Household-Practicing-Everyday-Rhythms/dp/0310362938/>

Here's one about our kids' battle with technology and the help we can give them:

<https://www.amazon.com/Tech-Exit-Practical-Freeing-Smartphones/dp/059373629X/>

And this one's a brand new book about classical education:

<https://www.amazon.com/Passing-Torch-Classical-Christian-Education/dp/1514011301/>

Or do you have a different idea, something you know of that might be useful and edifying for this community, committed as we are to providing our kids with an excellent education and a joyful, God-centered childhood? I'd love to hear about what you're reading and enjoying.

As far as timing goes, I'd be able to meet during the school day, perhaps right after chapel on Mondays or after opening on another day. If you'd prefer an evening meeting, perhaps Tuesday or Thursday. I'm flexible, and I'm eager to hear what would work best for you.

Please let me know if this sounds like something you'd be interested in, and we can begin to nail down some specifics. My email address is: tharris@nlcs.us

I'd love to read something great with you!

Yours,

Todd
